OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 9 June 1971

1. (Unclassified - DSB) Received a call from the office of Representative James T. Broyhill (R., N. Car.) requesting a personnel interview for a constituent. After checking with [REDACTED] Office of Personnel, I informed them that an appointment had been set up for [REDACTED] tomorrow morning, 10 June 1971, at 11:15 a.m.

2. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Called Victor Zafra, OMB, to check on the status of our proposed Retirement Act amendments and he acknowledged that while they had received the material from us on 29 April, for some reason OMB did not send it out for comment of other agencies until 13 May. He said unless we hear earlier from him, we should call him again on 24 June and he will gig the reporting agencies to get their comments.

3. (Unclassified - LLM) In response to her request of yesterday, called Miss Laura Aidt, in the office of Representative Robert T. Stafford (R., Vt.), concerning employment possibilities for a Spanish/French translator. [REDACTED]
